

Native Pastures – Natural Adapters

Alison Elvin
NaturalCapital Pty Ltd

alison@naturalcapital.com.au

Nitrogen-fixing Hovea common in many types of native pastures

Nitrogen – fixing Acacia in Kangaroo Grass dominated pastures

Small spreading Tea Tree with disease-fighting properties

Orchids are common in high-quality native pastures

Native Iris common in many native pastures

Fringe Lily

Ground covering forb at the edge of a Weeping Grass dominated pasture

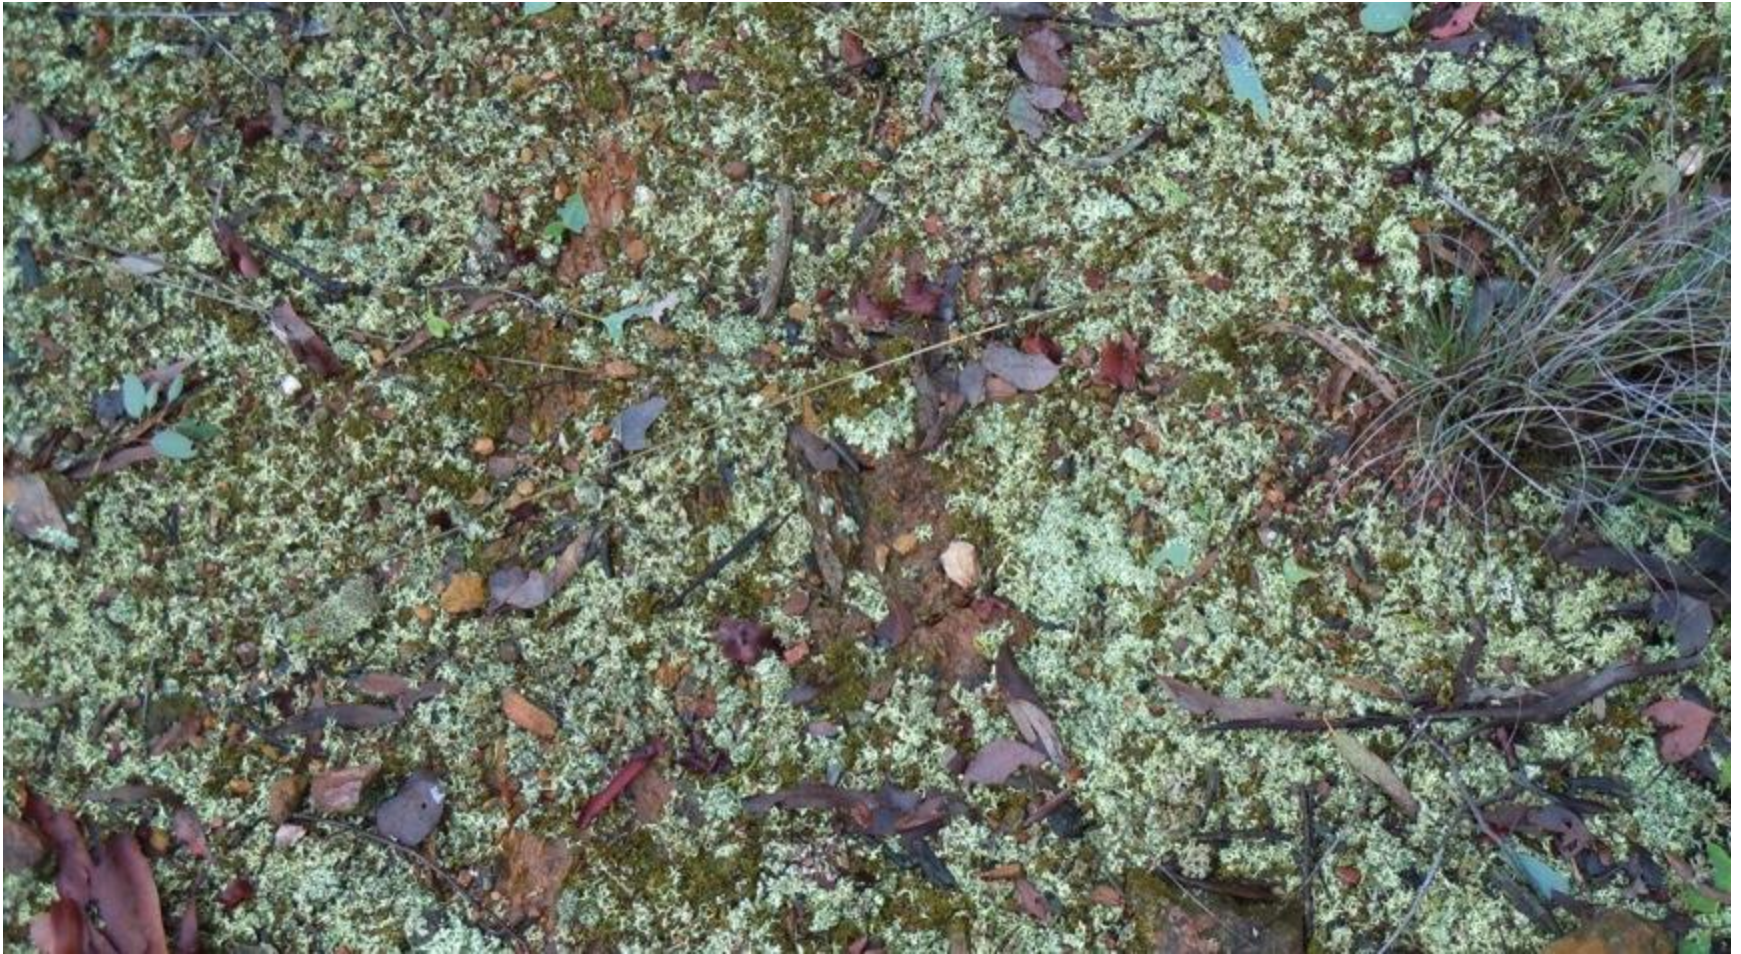

Prickly Blue Devils defying all attempts at extinction in native pasture paddock

A biological crust, composed of lichens, algae and moss, covering bare ground in a degraded native pasture

Biological crusts (cryptogams) colonizing bare ground in a native pasture

A species of cudweed in an overgrazed weeping grass dominated pasture

Native fireweed typical of many native pastures

Creeping Kidney-weed stabilizing leaf litter in a native grassy woodland pasture

Mat Rush

A small Mat Rush commonly found in a variety of native pastures.

Forb – Flax lily

