

Forum: The future of our region's non-urban land

- Who Anyone interested in the land use surrounding our towns and cities including farmers, land managers, Landcarers, natural resource managers and planners.
- When 8:45am to 1:00pm, Saturday 26th August 2017
- Where Renewables Innovation Hub, 19-23 Moore St, Turner (on street parking, bike rack, bus nearby)
- RSVP Registration by 21 August through Eventbrite is essential <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/act-region-peri-urban-land-futures-forum-tickets-36945680525>
- Catering Free morning tea and lunch by Magic Kitchen
- Enquiries Email: enquiries@landcareact.org.au
phone 0466 108 432

PROGRAM

8:45	Arrival and registration
9.00-10.30	Speakers session State of peri-urban lands: Dr Kate Auty, ACT Commissioner for Sustainability and the Environment ACT and NSW land planning processes: Government representatives Farming futures: Mr Peter Gullett, Lambrigg ACT Morning Tea
10:45-12:30	Workshop session Facilitated discussion, deliberation and reporting on the Issues and possible solutions to inform land use decision making for the future of farm businesses, food production and nature conservation. Lunch
12:50-1:00	Wrap up and thanks

This forum is to share and contribute ideas about land use, production for a sustainable future, and implications for planning decisions in the ACT Region. A short summary report will be provided to all participants and relevant government agencies of the ACT and NSW South East region by the end of 2017.

